DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claims 1-3, 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by YAMANA ET AL. (US 5,418,384), which provides a light source (1) having a:

- Base (1, Fig. 2);
- Plurality of uniformly-spaced LEDs aligned sequentially in a line (2, Fig. 6);
- An elongated, transparent, focusing rod lens made of plastic/polymer, spaced from and parallel to the LEDs (13, Fig. 7, Column 6, Lines 58-62; and
- Two opposite curved walls/reflectors extending from the base to the lens (either wall of 13, Fig. 15)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 2875

2. Claims 4, 10 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over YAMANA ET AL. (US 5,418,384), which discloses the claimed invention above including LEDs and a spaced lens, but does not specifically disclose the distance between the LEDs and lens. Notably, lenses are most commonly spaced at a focal point, especially when utilized in combination with a reflector in order to control focus, exit angle, etc. As such, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to adjust the distance between a light source and a lens since it was known in the art that such adjustments provide control and optimization of light distribution.

3. Claims 7-9, 11-15 and 17-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over YAMANA ET AL. (US 5,418,384), which discloses the claimed invention above including a rod lens, but does not disclose two rod lenses. However, it has been held that the mere duplication of the essential working parts of a device involves only routine skill in the art. St. Regis Paper Co., v. Bemis Co., 193 USPQ 8. As such, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to modify YAMANA and use more than one rod lens in order to obtain the known benefits of utilizing dual lenses.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

4. WIESE (US 5,785,404) discloses a light channeling device having an LED light and first light collection element, which focuses light on a second light channeling element.
